Basic Reptile Evacuation Kit Checklist

There are a number of different reptile species that require different care. Researching and understanding your pet's individual needs will help you to keep them safe and comfortable in times of disaster.

POWER FAILURE

Minimum 2 Week Supply of Food + Water

(Fresh produce may not be available during an emergency. Puree some of your pet's favorite fruits and vegetables and store them in baby food jars. Pureed foods should be stored in their natural juices and have no added salt)

Heat lamp, Extension Cord + Instant Heat packs

(Instant heat packs wrapped in a towel can serve as a substitute heat source in the event of a power outage)

Pet Enclosure with Lock

(Keeping a lock on your pet's enclosure can help to prevent escape should a disaster strike)

Appropriate pet First-Aid Kit, photo with Owner, Safe Cleaning

Supplies, + pillow Cases

(Pillow Case can provide temporary transport of snakes )
