

Pet of the Week:

Charlie!

Say hello to Charlie! Charlie wanted us to show off his adorable personality as he posed in his cute, blue and red sweater! Doesn't he look handsome? This sweet boy arrived at OC Animal Care just over 200 days ago when a good Samaritan rescued him off the streets. Charlie is a 3-year-old Staffordshire Bull Terrier mix who will do anything for a treat and some scratches behind the ears! He takes full advantage of his nap time and loves sprawling out on his comfy bed, but he's up and ready with a wagging tail and a grin when it's time for a walk with his best human friends! Charlie is a true gentleman who knows how to sit nicely, and we even think he's potty trained! We think Charlie will do best in a house where he can be the only pet and can curl up next to you as you watch your favorite movie!

Think Charlie would be the perfect addition to your family?
