

PET OF THE WEEK

ZORA

ANIMAL ID#: A1813131

Zora is looking for a fresh start! She's a cool and confident cattle dog mix who knows what she wants, and what she wants most is to find her forever home!

Some of Zora's favorite things are receiving belly rubs, playing tug, and splashing in the kiddie pool! She's already mastered her basic commands like sit, shake, stay, and down, and she's currently working on dropping the ball while playing fetch. Her big love for toys works as a great motivator for learning new manners and skills!

Zora would love an adopter who has experience handling strong and energetic dogs. With structure and consistency, she will become the well-mannered best friend she's meant to be! Give Zora (A1813131) a chance and visit her at OC Animal Care today!
