

PET OF THE WEEK

LAURENCE

ANIMAL ID#: A1880978

Meet Laurence, the happy-go-lucky boy with a heart of gold and the strength of a superhero! This cheerful pup has a smile that could light up the room and enough energy to power a small city.

Laurence loves going on walks, playing with his doggy friends, and sitting for treats. His short bursts of play are fun to watch and he'll happily plop down on all fours just to humor you. He's an expert at fetch, lover of treats, and overall good boy.

He's got muscles that would make a body builder jealous, but if you're looking for a strong and happy companion who will keep you laughing and active, Laurence (A1880978) is your guy! Call OC Animal Care at (714) 935-6848 and schedule a visit with him today!
