Be a Hero for a Shelter Dog

Spend a few hours making a difference through OC Animal Care's Dog's Day Out program. Take a dog on an adventure, share their story, and help them shine outside to help get them adopted. It's a rewarding way to support OC Animal Care and maybe even help a dog find a forever family. See www.ocpetinfo.com/dogsdayout for details.

Take a Shelter Dog on an Adventure!

Looking for a meaningful way to spend your morning? Join OC Animal Care's Dog's Day Out Pilot Program and take a shelter dog on a field trip exploring Orange County. It's a fun experience for you and it provides new experiences for a dog waiting to be adopted. The best part is participation is free and all supplies are provided. Visit www.ocpetinfo.com/dogsdayout for more info.

Dog's Day Out is Here at OC Animal Care!

OC Animal Care invites you to take a shelter dog on a morning outing through the new Dog's Day Out Pilot Program! Participants can enjoy a fun field trip to pet-friendly parks, trails, and businesses. All supplies are provided, including an orange "Adopt Me" vest that helps increase their adoption visibility. See www.ocpetinfo.com/dogsdayout for details.

Make a Dog's Day — Literally!

OC Animal Care's new Dog's Day Out Pilot Program lets you give a shelter dog an experience off-campus for a morning of fresh air, exercise, cuddles, and fun. These outings help dogs gain confidence, show their personalities, and connect with potential adopters out in the community. You can make a dog's day more adventurous. Find out more information by visiting our website at www.ocpetinfo.com/dogsdayout.

Morning Field Trips for Shelter Dogs

Through Dog's Day Out, OC Animal Care is asking the community to take select dogs on morning outings to parks, trails, and pet-friendly businesses. Spend the morning showing a shelter dog your favorite pet-friendly spot in Orange County! Appointments are required. Schedule yours today at www.ocpetinfo.com/dogsdayout.
